Objectives

Students will:

- learn about Christmas and its history;
- learn (or be reminded) about the NeoPopRealism ink & pen / pattern drawing style created by artist Nadia Russ in 1989 and NeoWhimsies, the simplified NeoPopRealism ink pen / pattern drawings;
- create a unique greeting card's NeoPopRealism ink pen drawings using a theme 'Christmas';
- focus/ model: Greeting Cards
- print copies from the students' greeting cards "Merry Christmas!" that they drew during their art lesson.

Students send these cards or give for Christmas to friends and relatives.

Vocabulary:

NeoPopRealism, NeoWhimsy, Card, Layout, Text, Image, Fold, Postage, Christmas

MATERIALS:

- Two sheets of white thick paper - cardstock - size 8.5"x11"
- Black ink pen 0.7 mm.
- Computer
- Printer

Day 1.

Class Period One:

Tell students a brief history of Christmas (see at the bottom of this page "Lesson plan background and historical information").

Examine the NeoPopRealism-NeoWhimsy greeting card "Merry Christmas!".

Instruct students about NeoPopRealism ink pen / pattern drawing style, its concept, and Nadia Russ, who created this art style in 1989 (see "Lesson plan background and historical information" below and in <http://neopoprealismblackwhiteink.blogspot.com/> [<http://neopoprealismblackwhiteink.blogspot.com/>]).

Examine the traditional-realistic drawings of Santa Claus (find them online or use photographs/ prints). Have students respond to questions and make comparisons how the NeoPopRealist image of Santa Claus is different from traditional-realistic images of Santa Claus, emphasizing use of ink pen, lines and patterns, contrasting (black ink on white paper) to convey the character and emotion.

Discuss Christmas day and its history and celebration, see below in "Art lesson plan background and Discuss Santa Claus, who is a portly, joyous, white-bearded man, regularly wearing a red coat with white collar and cuffs, white-cuffed red trousers, and black leather belt and boots. Images of him rarely have a beard with no moustache. This image popular in the US and Canada since 19th century due to the significant influence of Clement Clarke Moore's 1823 poem "A Visit From St. Nicholas" and of caricaturist and political cartoonist Thomas Nast. This image has been maintained and reinforced through songs, radio, television, children's books and films. See more on Santa Claus and Christmas Day in "Art lesson plan background and historical Information."

Focus on the repetitive patterns used in NeoPopRealist ink pen pattern drawing of the greeting card "Merry Christmas!". Ask students to reproduce these patterns and create new ones on separate white sheet of paper, using ink pen 0.7 mm - the strips, zigzags, waves, circles, whirls, dots, their variations and combinations:

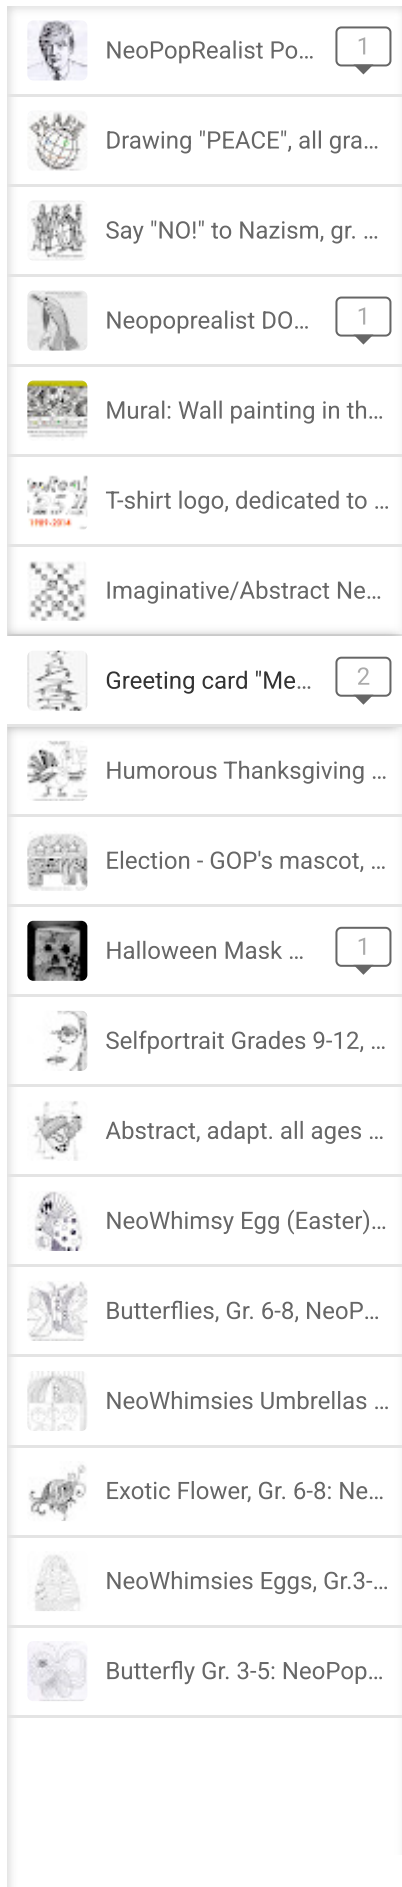

[<http://4.bp.blogspot.com/-Wwt7lcocf3c/UKWPe8mUJBI/AAAAAAAAABlc/sR3f3heg044/s1600/Repetitive+patterns+ink+pem+drawing+neopoprealism+greeting+card+merry+christmas+neowhimsy.JPG>]

Day 2.

Class Period Two:

Remind students the NeoPopRealism ink pen/ pattern drawing concept (see Lesson Plan - Background and Historical Information): a line creates a form, then this form divided into sections, then these sections filled with different repetitive patterns.

Have students fold a sheet of paper 8.5"x11" on the middle. do not cut it.

Have students turn it horizontal - the folding line must be on the top. Students draw the images of offered greeting card "Merry Christmas!" - the contours of Santa Claus' body and Christmas trees. Have students divide the trees, the Santa Claus' beard, hat, and more into sections. Then, they fill these sections with different repetitive patterns, some sections they leave blank. Students create the NeoPopRealist Greeting card "Merry Christmas!" using their new knowledge about NeoPopRealism ink pen/ pattern drawing. Encourage them to use imagination and create the new patterns instead of copying the offered ones.

Have them discuss why they included each element-pattern and what was difficult and easy while creating the NeoPopRealist Greeting card "Merry Christmas!" Have them describe the meaning of this card - Christmas Day and Santa Claus. Suggest to print at home or print in school, using Printer, the cards from the recently created by students the NeoPopRealism "Merry Christmas!" greeting cards. Suggest to send or give these cards to the relatives and friends on Christmas day.

Evaluation:

Did the students follow directions and the guidelines?

Did the students show an understanding of the artistic concepts of NeoPopRealism and NeoWhimsies?

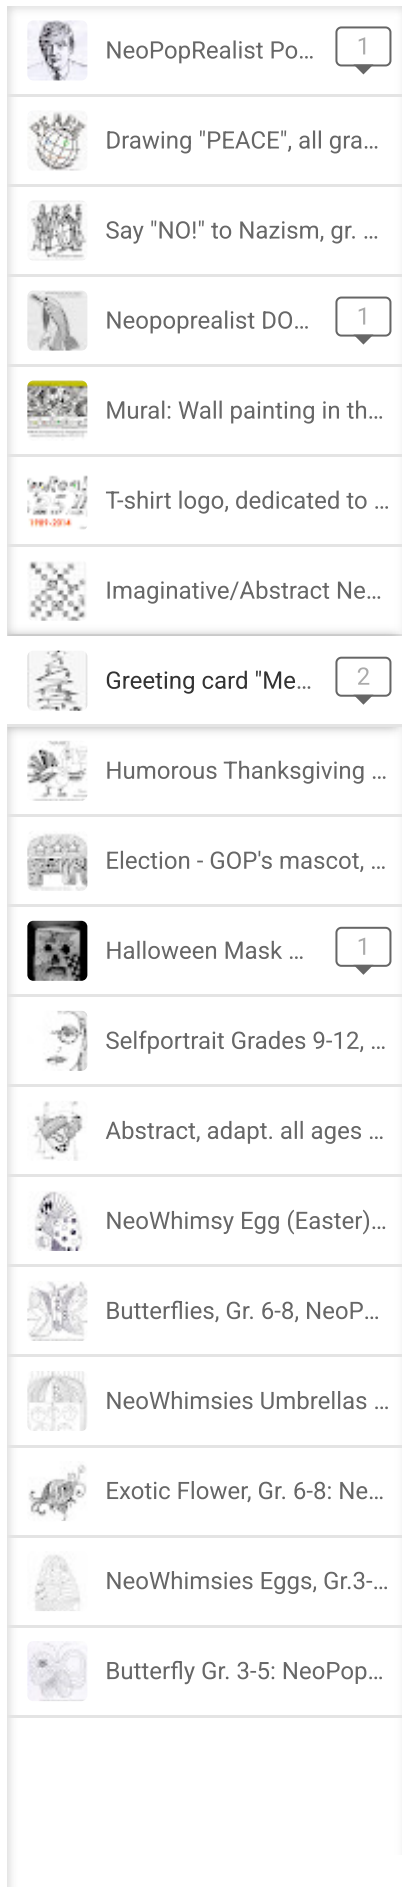

Did the students create a piece of art of a Greeting Card "Merry Christmas!" in NeoPopRealism ink pen / pattern drawing style - image NeoWhimsy Santa Claus?

ESOL Strategies:

Cooperative learning, learning of new material, activating background knowledge, music, total physical response, communication, multi-sensory approach, direct instruction.

Nadia Russ & NeoPopRealism:

Nadia RUSS is a Ukrainian-born Russian painter/ graphic artist living in the USA, who created a style of visual arts NeoPopRealism <http://neopoprealismblackwhiteink.blogspot.com> [http://neopoprealismblackwhiteink.blogspot.com/] /. She is famous for innovative NeoPopRealism art and ink pen pattern drawing, including abstract, the meditative style that she created in 1989. Instead of careful copying reality - wild life or human figure, Nadia RUSS creates her artwork using imagination. As Nadia RUSS experimented and developed her distinctive techniques, her drawings became more symbolic. For her drawings she uses white paper and black ink pen. However, sometimes, she uses blue ink on white paper and gold/silver ink on black paper.

*Nadia Russ, Mick Jagger, NeoPopRealism, ink & pen
 on paper, 1994*

How did Nadia RUSS develop her unique and original style NeoPopRealism? RUSS had studied classical drawing and composition since she was a child, but as she studied she found herself drawn to produce less realistic, more imaginative artwork. In 1989, she created NeoPopRealism art style and ink pattern drawing concept: line creates sections; then, these section filled with different repetitive patterns, some section should be left blank. If artwork made on canvas using color paints and a brush, then, it would be a combination of sections filled with hot and cold color paint, partly with patterns. In 1990, RUSS exhibited her first ink/ pattern drawings in a group exhibition in Moscow's famous Manege. Later, she was exhibiting her artwork in art galleries. In 1996, she moved to the Freeport, Bahamas, where her artwork gained special brightness. In 2000, she came to the USA where she lives till present. Nadia Russ create a term "NeoPopRealism" January 4, 2003. Same year. she manifested her new style of visual arts NeoPopRealism internationally. In 2004, she created NeoPopRealism 10 canons for happier life. In 2006-2007, several US and European museums collected Nadia Russ' paintings and drawings and now, these artworks are in the permanent collections of these museums.

Christmas day & Santa Claus:

Santa Claus, also known as Saint Nicholas, Father Christmas and simply "Santa", is a figure with legendary, mythical, historical and folkloric origins who, in many western cultures, is said to bring gifts to the homes of the good children during the late evening and overnight hours of Christmas Eve, December 24. The modern figure was derived from the Dutch figure of Sinterklaas, which, in turn, may have part of its basis in hagiographical tales concerning the historical figure of gift giver Saint Nicholas. A nearly identical story is attributed by Greek and Byzantine folklore to Basil of Caesarea. Basil's feast day on January 1 is considered the time of exchanging gifts in Greece.

Santa Claus is generally depicted as a portly, joyous, white-bearded man - sometimes with spectacles - wearing a red coat with white collar and cuffs, white-cuffed red trousers, and black leather belt and boots (images of him rarely have a beard with no moustache). This image became popular in the United States and Canada in the 19th century due to the significant influence of Clement Clarke Moore's 1823 poem "A Visit From St. Nicholas" and of caricaturist and political cartoonist Thomas Nast. This image has been maintained and reinforced through song, radio, television, children's books and films.

According to a tradition which can be traced to the 1820s, Santa Claus lives at the North Pole, with a large number of magical elves, and nine (originally eight) flying reindeer. Since the 20th century, in an idea popularized by the 1934 song "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town", Santa Claus has been believed to make a list of children throughout the world, categorizing them according to their behavior ("naughty" or "nice") and to deliver presents, including toys, and candy to all of the well-behaved children in the world, children, on the single night of Christmas Eve. He accomplishes this feat with the aid of the elves who make the toys in the workshop and the reindeer who pull his sleigh.

Christmas (Old English: Crīstesmæsse, meaning "Christ's Mass") is an annual commemoration of the birth of Jesus Christ and a widely observed holiday, celebrated on December 25 by people around the world. A feast central to the Christian liturgical year, it closes the Advent season and initiates the twelve days of Christmastide. Christmas is a civil holiday in many of the world's nations, is celebrated by an increasing number of non-Christians, and is an integral part of the Christmas and holiday season.

The precise date of Jesus' birth, which some historians place between 7 and 2 BC, is unknown. By the early-to-mid 4th century, the Western Christian Church had placed Christmas on December 25, a date later adopted in the East. The date of Christmas may have initially been chosen to correspond with the day exactly nine months after early Christians believed Jesus to have been conceived, as well as the date of the southern solstice (i.e., the Roman winter solstice), with a sun connection being possible because Christians consider Jesus to be the "Sun of righteousness" prophesied in Malachi 4:2.

The original date of the celebration in Eastern Christianity was January 6, in connection with Epiphany, and that is still the date of the celebration for the Armenian Apostolic Church and in Armenia, where it is a public holiday. As of 2012, there is a difference of 13 days between the modern Gregorian calendar and the older Julian calendar. Those who continue to use the Julian calendar or its equivalents thus celebrate December 25 and January 6 on what for the majority of the world is January 7 and January 19.

Ukraine, Serbia, the Republic of Macedonia, and the Republic of Moldova celebrate Christmas on what in the Gregorian calendar is January 7; all the Greek Orthodox Churches celebrate Christmas on December 25.

The popular celebratory customs associated in various countries with Christmas have a mix of pre-Christian, Christian and secular themes and origins. Popular modern customs of the holiday include gift giving, Christmas music and caroling, an exchange of Christmas cards, church celebrations, a special meal, and the display of various Christmas decorations, including Christmas trees, Christmas lights, nativity scenes, garlands, wreaths, mistletoe, and holly. In addition, several closely related and often interchangeable figures, known as Santa Claus, Father Christmas, Saint Nicholas and Christkind, are associated with bringing gifts to children during the Christmas season and have their own body of traditions and lore. Because gift-giving and many other aspects of the Christmas festival involve heightened economic activity among both Christians and non-Christians, the holiday has become a significant event and a key sales period for retailers and businesses. The economic impact of Christmas is a factor that has grown steadily over the past few centuries in many regions of the world.

Christmas Day is celebrated as a major festival and public holiday in countries around the world, including many whose populations are mostly non-Christian. In some non-Christian countries, periods of former colonial rule introduced the celebration (e.g. Hong Kong); in others, Christian minorities or foreign cultural influences have led populations to observe the holiday. Countries such as Japan, where Christmas is popular despite there being only a small many of the secular aspects of Christmas, such as gift-giving, decorations and Christmas trees.

Countries in which Christmas is not a formal public holiday include China, (excepting Hong Kong and Macao), Japan, Saudi Arabia, Algeria, Thailand, Nepal, Iran, Turkey and North Korea. Christmas celebrations around the world can vary markedly in form, reflecting differing cultural and national traditions.

Among countries with a strong Christian tradition, a variety of Christmas celebrations have developed that incorporate regional and local cultures. For Christians, participating in a religious service plays an important part in the recognition of the season. Christmas, along with Easter, is the period of highest annual church attendance.

In Catholic countries, people hold religious processions or parades in the days preceding Christmas. In other countries, secular processions or parades featuring Santa Claus and other seasonal figures are often held. Family reunions and the exchange of gifts are a widespread feature of the season. Gift giving takes place on Christmas Day in most countries. Others practice gift giving on December 6, Saint Nicholas Day, and January 6, Epiphany.

Fight bullying in schools to live with dignity with help of NeoPopRealism 10 canons for happier life - see www.nadiaruss.com [\[http://www.nadiaruss.com/\]](http://www.nadiaruss.com/) / or below:

NeoPopRealism philosophy for happier life:

1. Be beautiful;
2. Be creative & productive; never stop studying & learning;
3. Be peace-loving, positive-minded;
4. Do not accept communist or any other totalitarianism's philosophy;
5. Be free-minded, do the best you can to move the world to peace and

6. Be family oriented, self-disciplined;
7. Be free spirited. Follow your dreams, if they are not destructive, but constructive;
8. Believe in god. God is one, it is harmony and striving for perfection;
9. Be supportive to those who need you, be generous;
10. Create your life as a great adventurous story.

About what the NeoPopRealism philosophy for happier life stands for.

To bring the peace to the earth, it is time to unite all the peace-loving people, to stop the use and production of the heavy military equipment and weapons of mass destruction, such as war ships, war planes, artillery, nuclear bombs, etc., in every part of the world, without any exception, once and forever.

It has to be an international law, according to which any person of any country, in any government, responsible for use (or attempt to use) the heavy military equipment in any part of the world to kill people, would be imprisoned for the rest of life without possibility of amnesty, as the mass murderer. All sales of the heavy military equipment worldwide should be stopped, as well as production of new military heavy equipment, as part of this future law.

To keep this planet eco-friendly and beautiful, and people happy, we have to say 'good bye' to some irresponsible boys' bloody toys. (08.08.2014)
